

COOKIE ANGELS!

Want to be one?

The Cookie Angel Ministry serves children in Niceville, Valparaiso and the Children in Crisis each Friday afternoon. Our volunteers bake and deliver cookies to children who are in difficult situations such as death of a parent, divorce, a parent with chronic or terminal illness.

Volunteers are asked to bake about 5 doz-cookies once a month or every other month.

If you are unable to deliver, we have Cookie Angels who will deliver for you.

Please call Nannette Borland at 850-582-6562 for more information.

THANK YOU!

Hi Everyone!

Young at Heart:

December 12's program is the crowd favorite Opus One from Niceville High School presenting some of their Christmas music! Please sign up as early as possible, but no later than Dec 8!

December 12 will also be the last chance to bring food for the Children in Crisis, a ministry to sibling groups in the foster system. I was thrilled with the donations that were brought in November!! Thank you all! Active Adults 50 Plus serves this facility every week as teams take care of their food pantry.

A list of items can be obtained from me. Please help us fill the pantry and be a blessing to the children and their foster parents in this amazing facility. Thank you!

We have added two new trips to the sign ups. First Keith Allyn's Branson show "Neil Diamond Show". Google him! Second, the big band sounds of the Glenn Miller Band carrying on his traditions and music. Come and join us for a great time!

Also in this brochure, I have highlighted the Game Day events. Bridge, pinochle, or canasta groups welcome you joining in the fun. We are also hoping to revive the Mexican Train Dominos group.

And...please check out the blub about the Cookie Angels here in the brochure!

May your Christmas holiday be filled with the Light that pierces our darkness and brings hope and love for all who will receive Him!

Hope to see you soon!
Barbara
