

COOKIE ANGELS!

Want to be one?

The Cookie Angel Ministry serves children in Niceville, Valparaiso and the Children in Crisis each Friday afternoon. Our volunteers bake and deliver cookies to children who are in difficult situations such as death of a parent, divorce, a parent with chronic or terminal illness.

Volunteers are asked to bake about 5 dozen cookies once a month or every other month.

If you are unable to deliver, we have Cookie Angels who will deliver for you.

Please call Nannette Borland at 850-582-6562 for more information.

THANK YOU!

FUN EXERCISE! All are welcome!

Contact Barbara if you would like to join us. For The Chosen movies, each ticket is $13.38.

Hi Everyone!

First, may I express how thankful I am for your thoughts and prayers after my mom passed. They have meant so much to me. She was a great mom and sacrificed over and over for her family. Most importantly, she loves Jesus and was looking forward to stepping into everlasting life.

One last reminder that the Mexican Train Dominos group is getting started. Contact me if you are interested in joining this group which will be meeting on Fridays.

The cell phone classes are continuing. We can only take 10 people per class and you can sign up for all, if you would like. Victoria, your guide to all things cellular, will provide the class topics in advance. Please do sign up for the classes you want to attend. Don't miss this chance to learn how to make better use of your cell phone!

Don't miss the Movie Friends group announcement. When there's a Christian movie playing, we will organize a group to go. Signing up to receive the email does not commit you to attend the movies. You decided for each one. We carpool over to the AMC theater.

Lastly, a group went to the Glenn Miller Orchestra event on January 29 and had a fabulous time! It was unanimous that we should go again next year. We ate at the Cancun Mexican Grill in Bonifay. It was delicious! You should check them out if you are headed to Tallahassee. :-)

Hope to see you soon!
Barbara
