8:00 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. All Saints Day

Welcome & Prayer Katrina Jackson

Call to Worship For All The Saints by Mary MacDonald
Chancel Choir
Congregation
Selena Chavis, Pianist
Katrina Jackson, Conductor

Responsive Reading – Meghan Gordon
Inspired by Hebrews 12:1–2, Revelation 7:9–17, and John 11:25–26
Leader: We gather today surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, giving thanks for the faithful who have gone before us.
People: We remember their lives, their love, and the faith they shared. Their witness continues to inspire us.
Leader: We give thanks for those who taught us to pray, who showed us how to serve, and who reminded us of God's goodness through their words and deeds.
People: Their lives were a testimony to God's grace, and their faithfulness has helped shape our own.
Leader: Though we no longer see them, we trust that nothing—not even death—can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.
People: For Christ is risen, and because He lives, we have the promise of life everlasting.
Leader: Today, we remember with gratitude, even as we acknowledge the sorrow of those who grieve.
People: We give thanks for the gift of their lives and find comfort in the hope of the resurrection.
Leader: Scripture reminds us that one day, people from every nation, tribe, and language will stand before the throne of God, united in worship and praise.
People: And we, too, are called to join that great song of thanksgiving, trusting in the promise of God's eternal kingdom.
Leader: So let us honor the saints who have gone before us, not only with our words, but by living faithfully in the days God has given us.
People: May their witness strengthen our faith, their example inspire our service, and God's promises fill our hearts with hope.
Leader: People of God, even in the mystery of life and death, we trust in the One who makes all things new.
People: In Christ there is hope beyond sorrow, life beyond death, and a promise that will never fail. Thanks be to God! Amen.
